Intelligence Checklist for Congress

September 9, 1975

17

The Intelligence Checklist for Congress is a special publication produced by the Director of Central Intelligence with particular attention to the interests and needs of certain committees of the Congress. While much open source material is included, information and analysis from highly sensitive classified sources are also included to give full perspective to foreign developments.

PORTUGUESE TIMOR: Indonesian preparations for an invasion of Timor are virtually complete, but President Suharto remains reluctant to act before exhausting all other means of restoring order.

A Portuguese special envoy is still trying to piece together a multilateral peace-keeping effort in Timor. He is also trying to arrange talks between feuding Timorese factions. Indonesian officials are concerned that any talks will exclude Timor's pro-Indonesian party. They also suspect that Lisbon is deliberately stalling in order to provoke Jakarta into unilateral action, thereby absolving Portugal of future responsibility for the colony.
